On Wednesday, Mrs. R. S. Wilson, very charmingly entertained at a twelve o'clock Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Buckner, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Sanford.

Mrs. Mairian Ross and Miss Julia Ross gave a most pleasant twelve o'clock dinner to-day for Mrs. McBride, of St. Louis. Mrs. McBride is the guest of Mrs. R. H. Edmunds.

Those who were present were Mrs. McBride, Mrs. Edmunds, Mrs. R. M. White, Mrs. Frank Burton and Mrs. R. R. Arnold, Jr.

Mrs. R. R. Arnold gave a most elaborate dinner party, Thursday, at one o'clock, for Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Walker. With fourteen congenial spirits around a delicately spread board, it is needless to say that all went off agreeably. Mrs. Arnold's guests were Mesdames Cook, Walker, Sanford, Bryan, Spence, Mitchell, McMillan, Buckner, Ford, E. F. Robertson, Arthur Lee, Messrs Kokenmoller and Arnold.

Mesdames W. R. and N. R. Rhodes gave a most pleasant and elegant reception Thursday afternoon, for Mrs. L. O. Rhodes, of Boulder, Colorado. That afternoon was made pleasant by the many guests who were present and who were all very much enjoyed.

Mrs. S. R. and L. O. Rhodes, together with Mrs. Maurice Pearson received their friends in the west parlor which was made very pretty by a great many crimson rambler roses and here Mesdames A. R. Smith, C. K. Clark, W. W. Bots and J. J. Buckner assisted in entertaining the guests and by and by in manhandling them forth into the hall and there consigning them to the tender mercies of Mrs. M. B. Guthrie, Mrs. Harry Atchison and Miss Kola Luckie. When these last named ladies gave their august permission, the dining room parlors were passed and the most delicious and food and not cake, and rainbow ice cream far too pretty to be eaten, were served. Mrs. Chas. Claybrook and Mrs. W. L. Harper, sat at the table and pretended to be extremely busy apportioning the refreshments which were in reality under the capable charge of Misses Josephine Wallace, Emma McPheters, Mary Rhodes and Margaret Potter. A great quantity of sweet peas was used for the table decorations and for the entrance of the center piece, which gave forth a delightful fragrance. The buffet also was massed with the same pink blossoms. In the east parlors Mrs. Charles Bledsoe and Mrs. Cortez Edmonston very gracefully presided over the punch bowl while Mrs. A. A. Wallace and Mrs. J. C. Ring assisted in making agreeable conversation.

Mrs. Charles Claybrook had a few friends, Monday afternoon, for Miss Belle Buckner, and her guests Misses Mattie Lou and Midge Maddox. A great deal of talk filled up the afternoon most agreeably.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child grows too often, if the urine smells like ammonia or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depends upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., as given—Swamp-Root.

A Most Extraordinary Man.

An answer to a lady who requested to know "Why a Gardener was the most extraordinary man in the world? Because no man has more business on earth, and always choosing good ground for what he does. He commands his own Thyme, is Master of his Mint, raises his own Celery every year, and it is a bad year, indeed, that does not produce him a Plum. He needs with more thought than a King, and has in them more Painted Ladies, more genuine Roses and Lilies than he is met at a Country Wake. He makes Raking his business more than his diversion, as many fine Gentlemen do, but makes it an advantage both to health and fortune, which is the case with few others. Though plain in his own dress, with his Black and Blue Buttons, yet he surrounds himself with Princes' Feathers, and greatly admires the Pride of London, and with pleasure beholds Love-Love, bleeding under a Weeping Willow. His wife has as much of Lady's Love and Heart's Ease as he can desire, and never wishes for Weeds. Disasters, fatal to others, do not hurt him for he thrives most with a Censurion. He is a great Antiquary, having in his possession Adam's Needle, the Tree of Life, Jacob's Ladder, Solomon's Seal, the Holy Thorn, Venus' Looking Glass, The Arms of France and the Crown Imperial. He is well acquainted with the Globes, and has crossed the Line often than any Mariner in Great Britain. He is the King of Spades, is happy with his beautiful Queen Margaret, can boast of more Laurels than Alexander the Great and of more Bleeding Hearts than your Ladyship, but his greatest pride and the world's envy is that he can have Yew whenever he pleases.—From Chambers Floral Guide, 1907.

William Biggers is here from Moberly wanting to buy some property in the business portion of Mexico. Mr. Biggers wants to help make Mexico a city.

A party of young people spent Monday afternoon very pleasantly at Harlan Ford. Fishing and much hilarity devoted the success of the afternoon. Those who attended were Miss Louise Buckner, Miss Willard, Mary Abby, Willie Lewis, Grace Morris, Messrs Joe Hall, E. Criswell, Harper Van Ness, Louis Spalding, Ovens Adam, Mrs. William Berry and Mrs. Shears.

Mrs. W. L. Reed gave a delightful party, Tuesday from three till five, for her children Alice and Tom. Eighty children put in their prompt appearance and great was the timetly help. The refreshments pink and white in color to accord with the pretty decorations of sweet peas, was served in the dining room. As will readily be seen from the number of guests the hostess needed assistance in attending to their amusement and those who profited their aid were Misses Ellen Hill, Florence Cronin, Myrtle Adams, Lila Bots, Nannie Wright and Ella Page.

Mrs. J. J. Jense very pleasantly entertained the Fleur-de-lis Thimble Club, yesterday afternoon. This club very much resembles Tony's famous brook in that it goes on forever. Other clubs take a vacation throughout the hot months but not so the energetic crowd who attend this club each week and do all the work going there at. Let the good work go on. George Robertson, Jr., son of Attorney Geo. Robertson, is home from Lexington, Va., where he attended school at the Virginia Military Institute. George came home by the way of Jamestown, and was very much pleased with the Exposition.

Miss Genevieve Murray delightfully entertained in honor of her 13th birthday at her home on South Clark ave., Friday from 4 to 7 p. m. The guests were: Mildred Wallace, Irene Brooks, Ruth Hossey, Harriet Winans, The Griffith, Dorothy Worrell, Martha Matthews, Irene Roden.
